Best Method for Contacting the Board

While agency staff attempt to be responsive to telephone calls and inquiries, due to a heavy call volume and limited time and resources, the best method for contacting agency staff is via email. While licensees and members of the public are welcome to contact the Board via telephone for matters requiring immediate attention, you are encouraged to contact agency staff via email for matters which are routine or not time sensitive. Please keep in mind that the Board has limited voicemail capabilities. Thus, in the event you encounter a full voicemail box when attempting to contact staff, you are encouraged to email your question or concern instead. When emailing, please indicate in the subject line of the email whether your communication is urgent in nature.

Our goal is to respond to urgent or time sensitive matters as quickly as possible, and to respond to routine or non-urgent calls and emails within 10 business days. Response times may vary however due to such things as the nature of the inquiry, the need for further research or review, employee absences, and other agency priorities.

Many answers to questions received by the Board are found within the Psychologists’ Licensing Act, Board rules, and licensing information which may be accessed through this website. Please refer to these laws and resources before contacting the Board.
The TSBEP is pleased to announce that it has instituted a new annual program, the Board Service Awards. The first awards were presented at the 2015 Texas Psychological Association Annual Convention. We think the awards ceremony was a great success, and hope to make it an annual event.

By way of history, the Board has been searching for a way to recognize those psychologists who have regularly assisted the Board by serving as Oral Examiners, as members of Board committees, and as professional reviewers. The Board is able to pay only a small stipend for the professional expertise needed in order to examine candidates for licensure and to assist in the investigation of complaints that require professional expertise as part of the investigation.

There are two levels of the awards. There is a 5-year award for those who have served at least once a year for the past five years, and a 10-year award for those who have served at least once a year for the past 10 years. Recipients of the 5-year award receive an award certificate; a group picture of those who received the award and attended the awards ceremony will be published in the Board’s newsletter; and, their names will be published in the newsletter as having received the award, and why. 10-year award recipients will receive all of the above, plus a lapel pin, and they will be featured in a “Spotlight on…” section of the newsletter with an individual picture and a short biographical paragraph.

We hope the Board Service Awards will serve as a token of the Board’s appreciation for psychologists who volunteer their time and expertise in order to help the Board with our mission to protect the public and to ensure that licensees have the necessary qualifications to provide quality psychological services to the citizens of the State of Texas.

Corwin Boake, III, Ph.D.

_In grateful recognition of over 10 years service as an Oral Examiner, over ten years service on the Board’s Written Examination Committee, and for participation in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops._

Dr. Boake earned the Ph.D. in clinical psychology at the University of Louisville. He is board-certified by the American Board of Clinical Neuropsychology/American Board of Professional Psychology. Dr. Boake practices neuropsychology in the Memorial Hermann Hospital System and the University of Texas – Houston Medical School where he is a Clinical Associate Professor in the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. He also practices in Louisiana as a medical psychologist and neuropsychologist at Jefferson Neurobehavioral Group in Metairie. He serves on the American Psychological Association Council of Representatives, representing Division 40/Society of Clinical Neuropsychology.
Robert G. Braun, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

I went into private practice after a twenty-year career in the air force. My area of specialization focused on loss and the ensuing grief process. Emphasis was on the normalcy of each and was modeled after the work of Dr. Ken Moses who said, “Grieving is an unlearned, spontaneous and self-sufficient process.”

Away from Austin, I have served on the Board of Any Baby Can, Inc. and played senior softball. My lovely wife, Pat and I have watched with pride as our granddaughters have become beautiful, intelligent, athletic women. We feel our lives have been fulfilled beyond measure.

Michael J. Bridgewater, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years of service as an Oral Examiner and over ten years service on the Board’s Written Examination Committee.

Dr. Bridgewater has been a licensed psychologist in Texas since 1981. He presently has the following active licenses/credentials: Licensed Psychologist with HSP, Licensed Specialist in School Psychology, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Nationally Certified School Psychologist. Dr. Bridgewater has served as an Oral Examiner since 1997 and has served on the Board’s Written Examination (Jurisprudence) Committee since 1998. Dr. Bridgewater worked for 25 years as a School Psychologist. He also served for 24 years in the Army Reserve as a Clinical Psychologist from which he retired as a Colonel in February 2006. Dr. Bridgewater presently works in private practice. Quote from Dr. Bridgewater: “Every time I have come to the TSBEP, I have enjoyed the TSBEP’s staff, and I have especially enjoyed working with other professional psychologists from around the state.”

Mary Alice Conroy, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service on the Board’s Written Examination Committee.

Dr. Conroy spend the first 20 years of her career with the U.S. Bureau of Prisons as a forensic evaluator and administrator. Upon retirement she came to Sam Houston State University and has served both as Director of Clinical Training for the Clinical Psychology Doctoral Program and as Director of the SHSU Psychological Services Center (training clinic). During her time at SHSU she has served on the Board of Examiners for the American Board of Forensic Psychology, as President of the American Academy of Forensic Psychology, as Chair of the Forensic Specialty Council, as a member of ABPP’s Council of Presidents, on the ABPP Committee on Education and Training, and on the American Psychological Association’s Committee on Legal Issues. In the State of Texas, she has served on the Board of Trustees.
for the Texas Psychological Association, established the Forensic Special Interest Group, served as the first Director of the TPA Division of Forensic Practice, and has presented numerous statewide workshops regarding forensic practice. She is board certified in forensic psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP) and, in 2013, was named a Distinguished Professor of Psychology by Sam Houston State University.

Maria C. Cruz, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years of service as an Oral Examiner and as past Chair of the Oral Examination Workgroup.

John V. Elwood, Psy.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Elwood obtained his Psy.D. degree from Baylor University in 1979. He fell in love with Texas while at Baylor and continues to live in Central Texas. Most of his career has been spent in private practice. Currently, he has offices in Killeen and Temple. In addition to psychotherapy, he does disability and neuropsychological evaluations.

Dr. Elwood has been an oral examiner for the Board since the 1980’s. He enjoys these examinations very much. As a private practitioner, he finds this to be a great opportunity to connect with other psychologists. He is also a regular contributor to TPA’s political activities and would urge more psychologists to contribute to this important work.

Constance J. Fournier, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner and for participation in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops.

Dr. Fournier received her doctorate in Educational Psychology with a specialty in School Psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. She has practiced in a medical training hospital with both in- and out-patient populations of children, adolescents, and family. Dr. Fournier is currently clinical professor at Texas A&M University in the Department of Educational Psychology. Quote from Dr. Fournier: “I do enjoy being an oral examiner because we see the new members of our profession ready to be licensed, and because we get to talk with fellow oral examiners who are of a similar frame of mind of contributing to the profession by doing these exams (including former students.) I love to travel, and most of the time keep up with college football teams in schools where family has attended.”
Philip G. Gasquoine, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner and for participation in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops.

New Zealander Philip Gerard Gasquoine received his doctorate in 1983 from the neuropsychology subprogram at the City University of New York. He was licensed in Massachusetts and Hawaii before obtaining his Texas license in 1992. He ran his own independent practice in Corpus Christi, Texas before joining the faculty of the University of Texas – Pan American (now the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley) in 2005. He has since been awarded tenure, promoted to full professor, and served as the Graduate Program Director and Department Chair. He specializes in the neuropsychological assessment of bilingual Hispanic Americans and conducts research on the effects of bilingualism on neuropsychological test scores.

Josue R. Gonzalez, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Gonzalez received his Ph.D. from the University of Houston in 1976. He then worked as a faculty member at the UT Health Science Center – San Antonio, followed by directing a NIMH research project. He has been Director of Psychological Services for two organizations. In addition to maintaining a private practice for more than 35 years, he has also been the Psychological Consultant for DARS, South Region for over 12 years. He has also been an adjunct faculty member at UTSA in the counseling graduate program for over 18 years. He is also an adjunct professor at St. Mary’s University where he teaches in the Doctoral Program in the MFT department. Dr. Gonzalez has also consulted with various organizations, including major school districts in Bexar County for over 30 years. Dr. Gonzalez also consults with a developmental disorders organization where he has conducted a group for parents for over 9 years. While his practice is general, including couples and families, he specializes in working with adolescents and adults diagnosed with Asperger’s Syndrome. Dr. Gonzalez is also presently writing a book on the use of ambiguity theory in therapy.

Jerry Grubbs, Ed.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.
Keith M. Hankins, Ed.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner, participation in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops, and as a member of the Board’s Oral Examination Workgroup.

Dr. Mark Edward Hatfield received his Ph.D. with honors in Clinical Psychology from the University of Mississippi in 1986 and was licensed as a Psychologist in Texas in 1988. Dr. Hatfield's private practice provides evaluation, intervention and consulting services for children, adolescents, adults, couples and families and his office is located in the FM1960 area of NW Houston, Texas. Dr. Hatfield developed and implemented the Stress Management Program for private psychiatric hospitals and medical hospitals, served as President of Psychological Services, Director of Adolescent Psychiatric Unit, Director Intensive Outpatient Treatment Program and has helped others to become psychologists through teaching, training and supervision. Dr. Hatfield has been married 40 years and has two sons who are both married. He enjoys working with couples and families to build satisfying and productive relationships. He received his Bachelor's degree with honors in Psychology and Religious Studies from the University of New York at Buffalo and is well known to the community for his ability to integrate Biblical principles and spiritual values with psychotherapy and has served as Pastor and Youth Pastor. In addition to his clinical skills, Dr.
Hatfield holds dual licensure in Texas as a Licensed Specialist in School Psychology. He has served on the boards of community districts and private associations and has been interviewed by radio and television stations. Dr. Hatfield's practice is designed to incorporate the needs of high profile clients.

S. Morton McPhail, Ph.D.

_In grateful recognition of over ten years service on the Board’s Written Examination Committee, service as an Oral Examiner and as an original member of the Board’s Oral Examination Workgroup._

Dr. S. Morton McPhail has practiced Industrial/Organizational Psychology for more than 35 years. He received his B.A. in Psychology from Trinity University in San Antonio. After receiving graduate degrees from Colorado State University, Dr. McPhail joined the consulting firm LWFW in Houston. In 1981, he co-founded Jeanneret & Associates and became a Principal of the firm. Upon merger, he became Senior Vice President with Valtera, a position he continued to hold after Valtera joined CEB until his retirement in 2013. During his career, he consulted with clients on a wide variety of issues. His clients included major municipalities, the federal government, and private sector organizations ranging from small family businesses to Fortune 100 companies. He served as an expert in litigation involving such diverse issues as job analysis, selection practices, equal employment opportunity, compensation, reductions in force, and statistical analysis. His consulting work included audits of existing selection procedures, development and validation of an array of scientifically based assessment tools, creation of performance management systems, development of training and development programs ranging from crafts personnel to senior executives, and executive assessments for selection and development. Dr. McPhail is a Fellow of the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology and served as its Secretary-Financial Officer from 2009 – 2011. He has published journal articles and three book chapters, edited a volume in SIOP’s Professional Practice Series titled _Alternative Validation Strategies: Developing New and Leveraging Existing Validity Evidence_, and presented on numerous topics at professional meetings. He is adjunct faculty for the University of Houston and Rice University and serves on the editorial boards of SIOP’s Professional Practice book series and the journal _Industrial and Organizational Psychology: Perspectives on Science and Practice_. He has also served the APA on its Continuing Education Committee and on the Advisory Panel for National Standards for High School Curriculum in Psychology. Until his retirement, he was a licensed psychologist and served for 15 years on a Texas Psychology Board committee responsible for the State’s Jurisprudence and Ethics Examination for licensure.

Dennis Nelson, Ph.D.

_In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner._

Dr. Nelson earned his Ph.D. in 1980 from Florida State University. He was Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychology at Baylor College of Medicine for 17 years. As a psychologist and LSSP, Dr. Nelson has also contracted to provide services for a number of school districts in the Houston area. He has also served as an Oral Examiner for over 20 years. Currently, Dr. Nelson has a private practice, serves as staff therapist for the GRID Treatment Program for Sex Offenders, and is a service provider to employee assistance programs for international petrochemical companies.

Willard J. Pannabecker, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Will Pannabecker’s career in psychology spanned more than 4 decades. He is a graduate of both UT-Austin and Texas Tech University. Licensure became law while he was in graduate school. A few years later, he was on a task force to contribute questions for the first Jurisprudence Exam and was also a delegate to the Texas Conference on Mental Health during Roslyn Carter’s nation-wide emphasis on mental health. His career included positions in community mental health, psychiatric hospitals, private practice and 12 years as Director of Health and Counseling at St. Edward’s University. He served as Ethics Chair and President of the McLennan County Psychological Association, and also served as President of the Texas University Counseling Center Directors Association. Two accomplishments stand out in his mind as major events in his career. First, he provided the leadership to secure accreditation for a predoctoral internship in clinical psychology that incorporated moral, religious, and spiritual factors into the training program. It was only the second time APA had accredited such a program. Second, at St. Edward’s University he provided the leadership to merge the separate Health Center and Counseling Center into a single point of service in a new facility designed specifically for the Health and Counseling Center. Dr. Pannabecker had a strong commitment to patient care and services, as well as professional involvement in providing training and supervision to more than 100 practicum and predoctoral trainees. He held adjunct or allied health credentials at a variety of colleges and universities, including Baylor University, UT-Austin, and Penn State University. His years of service as an Oral Examiner was one small way to give back to a profession that had given so much to him.

Richard L. Peck, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Peck has been licensed by the TSBEP for the independent practice of psychology since 1988 and has served as an oral examiner for the TSBEP since 1997. He holds graduate degrees in psychology from the University of North Texas and Texas Woman’s University. Dr. Peck practices in the areas of clinical, child, adolescent and family psychology, as well as school psychology.
Michael D. Penticuff, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner and as a member of the Oral Examination Workgroup.

Michael Penticuff earned his doctorate in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1978. After a career in the government of the State of Texas, he returned to graduate school and completed a formal respecialization in Counseling Psychology in the Counseling Psychology Training Program at the University of Texas at Austin. Although his practice since being licensed in 1995 has been in the area of counseling psychology, his earlier background led him to believe strongly in the importance and value of the oral examination as a crucial component of the Board’s mission to protect the public.

Francisco I. Perez, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years of service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Perez received his Ph.D. in clinical psychology in 1972 from the University of Florida. He has been licensed in Texas to practice psychology since 1973. He has been on the faculty at the University of Houston and Baylor College of Medicine. He is currently on the adjunct faculty at the UT Health Science Center – Houston School of Public Health. Dr. Perez has been in private practice since 1980. He holds a board certification by ABPP with a specialty in clinical neuropsychology. Dr. Perez advocates the scientist-practitioner model of clinical practice. He has published in peer-reviewed journals, and has made numerous scientific presentations in national and international meetings. Currently, Dr. Perez is a co-investigator in a multi-center NIH supported grant investigating the efficacy of cognitive rehabilitation in people with Multiple Sclerosis with co-investigators at the UT Austin School of Nursing.

Jody A. Rubenstein, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Rubenstein is a Texas license clinical neuropsychologist/psychologist practicing in Dallas. He received his Ph.D. from the University of New Mexico in 1992. He retired from the Dallas VA Medical Center in 2014 having provided neuropsychological services for 27 plus years. He served there as the Psychology Training Director for the practicum, APA accredited internship, and APA accredited post-doctoral programs. Dr. Rubenstein was a member of the VA National Psychology Professional Standards Board and the VA Psychology Training Council and was elected President of the Association of VA Psychology Leaders, 2013-2014. As a private practitioner, he has provided neuropsychological services including consulting with the Dallas St. Paul Hospital Heart and Lung Transplant program as well as individual and various agency patients. Dr. Rubenstein has been an Oral Examiner for the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists for over 15 years.

Ann A. Salo, Ph.D.

Dr. Snodgrass retired from Texas State University in August 2013 as Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs and Director of the Counseling Center after 35 years of service to the University and more than 40 years in higher education. He came to Texas State in 1978 as a Staff Counselor in the Counseling Center and an Assistant Professor of Psychology, after receiving a Ph.D. in Counseling and Educational Psychology from UCLA. He received his Masters and Bachelors degrees from the University of Alaska in Fairbanks. He was an Associate Professor of Psychology for more than 20 years and currently serves as an adjunct Associate Professor in the Student Affairs in Higher Education masters program. Dr. Snodgrass has published several articles related to student services, authored a teaching manual for a Career Counseling textbook, and given numerous presentations on student mental health at national, state and local conferences. Dr. Snodgrass is a licensed psychologist in the State of Texas and serves as an Oral Examiner for the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists. He is an active member of many professional organizations. He has served as President and on the Governing Board of the Association of University and College Counseling Center Directors and as President for the Texas University and College counseling Director’s Association. He also served as a founding Advisory Board member of the Center for Collegiate Mental Health, a national institute for research on college student mental health. Dr. Snodgrass is a U.S. Army veteran. He served in the Vietnam conflict during 1970-1971.

James P. Thompson, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Thompson completed a Ph.D. in clinical psychology from the APA-approved program at the University of Houston in 1981. He completed a clinical psychology internship from the APA-approved program at Baylor College of Medicine in 1979, and was licensed as a psychologist in Texas in 1982. He worked at Spring Shadows Glen psychiatric hospital from 1981 to 1988 as a staff psychologist and Director of Psychology. He worked at the VAMC Houston from 1988 to 1996 as a staff psychologist during which time he was also adjunct faculty at Baylor College of Medicine. Dr. Thompson was called twice to be a witness in the Andrea Yates trials. He has served as an Oral Examiner for the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists since about 1990. Dr. Thompson is currently in private practice in Houston, Texas.

Lee T. Wallace, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner.

Dr. Wallace received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in Psychology from Texas A&M University and his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Southern Mississippi. He spent the early part of his career at Austin State Hospital, primarily as a staff psychologist on the Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Units. Dr. Wallace currently treats patients in his private practice and consults with Disability Determination Services on social security claims. He and his wife volunteer with the Miracle League of Austin, a baseball program for children with mental and physical disabilities. Dr. Wallace has served as an Oral Examiner since 2001.

Mark C. Wilde, Psy.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner and participation in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops.

Nancy E. Wilson, Ph.D.

In grateful recognition of over ten years service as an Oral Examiner, participating in Oral Examination Vignette Writing Workshops, and as a member of the Oral Examination Workgroup.

Nancy Wilson, Ph.D. (B.A. – University of Pennsylvania; Ph.D. McMaster University) has been licensed as a psychologist in Texas since 1976. She worked for 25 years at the Austin State Hospital, primarily as Psychologist and Program Director for the Center for the Deaf and was throughout that time involved in psychology intern supervision, serving as the Assistant Director of Internship Training from 1990 – 2000. After leaving ASH in 2000, Dr. Wilson worked for several years for VeriCare (previously Senior Psychology Services) and since 2002 has been a Psychology Consultant for Social Security Disability Determination Services. Dr. Wilson is a member of APA, TPA, and CAPA. She also is a Fellow of the A.K. Rice Institute for the study of Social Systems and, since 1980, has been involved in staffing/directing experiential group relations conferences, governance in the organization, and training practitioners. Dr. Wilson has been an Oral Examiner for the TSBEP since 1993 and a member of the Oral Exam Work Group since 2007.
